He was hit in the chest and the bullet entered the direction of the running boy. He was caught by the police and taken to the home that had been robbed, but was later released.

WOMEN AUTOISTS ARE MORE CAREFUL THAN MEN, MOST OF MEMPHIS TRAFFIC COPS SAY

Are women better and more careful automobile drivers than men is the question now agitating motor circles in the East. The consensus of opinion is in favor of the ladies. This also holds true in Memphis, where all the crossing policemen are unanimous on the ladies' side. W. H. Morgan, Main and Union, spoke up promptly in favor of the gentler sex, as he claims, the more careful.

"Women are far more careful," he declared. "A man will drive better-looking neither to the right or the left. A woman will advance slowly and surely with both eyes upon any possible emergency. They are, as a rule, quicker witted and also possess better judgment than the average man."

"With the exception of a few young and rather reckless girls, who are inclined to speed, women are much more careful than the men," asserted W. H. Morgan, Madison and Main. "Women are the great conservative force and it is nowhere shown more plainly than in motor driving. They are cautious, look out for all possible danger, wait for signals and take note of the patrolman's words. I venture to predict that in it—unless she is a perfectly green driver—that her's is not the blame."

"There are a certain class of women who will take advantage of their sex in order to transgress traffic regulations," stated W. F. Turner, Beale and Main. "However, I am glad to say that they are in the minority. I have no hesitation in saying that women are far superior to men as drivers. So much so that there can be no comparison."

"I give the palm to the women," was the assertion of Officer 216, Main and Gayoso. "As a rule, they are much cooler and more self-possessed; less inclined to take chances and show more consideration. Women are far superior to men."

"Woman, as a rule, is more careless than man," stated W. W. Billings, another traffic cop, who is the exception to the universal view of approval, the rift within the feminist lute. "My experience has shown them to be extremely forgetful and heedless of everything but their own selfish wishes. I have to call down nine women to one man."

"My experience has been that they both are mighty reckless," asserted M. H. Wiley, Court and Main. "It strains one's nerves to keep looking after both sexes. However, I am willing to grant the honors to the ladies. They are more careful than the men and also more considerate of the rights of others. Some seem to think that they should have more consideration on account of their sex, but they are greatly in the minority."

"Women that are good are very, very good, and when they're bad they're horrid," commented J. J. Kilpatrick, Madison to Adams. "One of our great difficulties is that women from the suburbs come in the the crowded streets just to test their proficiency as chauffeurs. They are the ones that bring gray hairs to our heads. Sometimes we have a run of these and then we suffer for our sins. Other days, especially if there is a little rain or threat of rain, are free from this pest. But, take it all in all, the ladies are much more dependable and far surpass the men as drivers."

"A woman will not take the chances a man will," affirmed E. P. Rowe, Monroe and Main. "It is the bane of the average crossing officer's life that men will rush down town to save a few minutes at the office and, regardless of everything and everyone but that one consideration, will expect all others to give way before them. The average woman is a sure, safe and conservative driver. The average man could pattern after her greatly to his own benefit and the advantage of others."

Our Saturday Night Visitors

TO KEEP our friends from wasting their "pocket money," every Saturday night from six until eight o'clock our Savings Department is open to receive deposits.

WE ARE glad that so many of our savings depositors have the "Saturday night habit." Every Saturday night we see the same faces at our savings windows, with a steady increase in new ones.

For the wage-earner whose money seems to "burn a hole in his pocket," Saturday evening open hours should be a strong inducement to start and maintain a savings account.
